GLENVIEW COMMUNITY CHURCH

NOVEMBER 3, 2010

A Pilgrim's Progress

Do you ever get tired of hearing people criticize others, complain about the school system or the church, or moan about their situation in life? I certainly do. That's why Lillian Daniel's reflection on an excerpt from Timothy resonated with me.

"For the time is coming when people will not put up with sound doctrine, but having itching ears, they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own desires . . ." (2 Timothy 3:14-4:5)

Reflection

I am tired of hearing people say stupid things in the name of Christianity. I am tired of nutty pistol-packing pastors who want to burn the Koran. I am tired of televangelists who claim that natural disasters are the will of God. I am tired of Christians who respond to the pain of disease with a lecture about behavior. I am tired of preachers who promise prosperity.

I am also tired of people who say that they are privately spiritual but not religious. I am tired of people who have one bad experience with a church and paint the whole of Christianity with that brush. I am tired of celebrities who criticize the church for being patriarchal and homophobic but do nothing to support the churches that are not.

I am tired of people who say they want a church like ours but cannot be bothered to attend one. And I am tired of people who criticize churches like ours and go somewhere else.

So I resonate with the angry words from this letter to the early church. I feel like I live in a society where the stupid and simple in spirituality always trump the depths of a complex faith. We are a people of itchy ears, who depart from sound doctrine in favor of easy answers. Perhaps I am really just tired of myself. In criticizing others in their faith, I hardly live up to the best in my own faith. Perhaps the people who irritate me the most are exposing my own false doctrines.

Prayer

God, guide me toward true doctrine, not of my own making but of yours. Keep my focus on the one who died on the cross, and not on the little mini-god I have created in my own image. Amen.

Lillian is Senior Minister of First Congregational Church, UCC, in Glen Ellen, IL. I'm grateful for her honesty and openness. May her sharing help you in your journey.

Howard

Wednesday, November 24
7:30 p.m.

Featured Speaker:

Rev. Dr. Robin K. Brown,
of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church

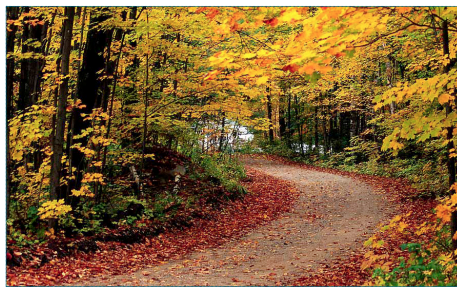

Interfaith choir will practice before the service at Glenview United Methodist Church beginning at 6:30 p.m.

The collected monetary offering will be divided among Glenview Youth Services Easing Fund, the Northfield Township Food Pantry and the Glenview Police Citizens' Emergency Assistance Fund. All who attend are also encouraged to bring a can of staple food or a box of household paper supplies, which will be collected and donated to the Northfield Food Pantry.

Glenview United Methodits Church is located on 727 North Harlem Road.

SAVE THE DATE

Don't forget the Fall BBQ is Friday, November 19. Look for order forms online and in Broadcaster. Orders can be placed on Sunday, November 7th in Mayflower room. Questions? Please call Kim Vanderveen (847) 730-3335 or e-mail chicagodutch@yahoo.com.

GCC Final Walk

Final walk of the year! Take a surprise walk on November 14, meet after church at 11:45 in the north parking lot. For information call Bob and Nan Hinchsliff @ 847-724-4836.

Travel to Israel and Palestine

Hands of Peace is sponsoring for the very first time a trip to Israel and Palestine on October 23 through November 3 of 2011.

We will visit the major spiritual sites in the region (Jewish, Christian and Muslim) and explore in depth both sides of the political conflict. We expect to visit Jerusalem, Bethlehem, Hebron, Sderot, Ramallah, the Dead Sea, the Galilee, and Haifa among other places (itinerary is currently being planned).

Hands of Peace is partnering with MEJDI (Middle East Justice and Development Initiatives), a unique tour operator co-owned by three experts in the field of conflict resolution: Rabbi Marc Gopin (of George Mason University), Palestinian peace activist Aziz Abu-Sarah, and Middle East peace researcher Scott Cooper.

The current cost is estimated (with airfare) at $3500--$4000 (details are being worked out)

Thank You

The Service and Sacraments Board would like to thank the following members of the Children's Board for serving communion on November 7th; Jim Yagelski, Julie Zylke, Stephanie Ford, and Christopher McGuire. If you would like to volunteer to serve communion on November 28th, please contact Carolyn Brown, via e-mail brownfamily25@att.net or call (847)729-4766.

WHY IS THIS TRIP DIFFERENT FROM ALL OTHER TRIPS?

MEJDI will provide us with two top-notch guides: one Israeli and one Palestinian, so that our intimate group (about 30 people) will receive both points of view throughout the trip.

Our "in-house" tour facilitator will be Ron Miller, professor of Religion at Lake Forest College, co-founder of Common Ground, and Board member of Hands of Peace. Ron will lead reflections and dialogue on each day's experiences.

We will visit with selected "Hands" and their families during the trip, and hope to include an Alumni Club follow-up meeting as part of the encounter.

If you interested in this trip please contact Laura Bernstein: LJBernstein@comcast.net for more information and to put your name on the list. Space is limited!

Knitting Anyone?

Thursday, November 11 at 1:00 p.m., we will have our first gathering and sharing of patterns and ideas. This year we will concentrate on making winter things for the Night Ministry.

No more baby hats for awhile. If you have questions, call Nan Hinchsliff at (847)724-4836 or email nhinchsliff@aol.com.

The Fall Festival

November 13, 2010 at 3:00 p.m.

The second of this year's Simple Gift Concerts will be sponsored by the Lutheran Choir of Chicago. This concert will bring together a variety of church choirs from all around the Chicagoland area in a day-long workshop culminating in this one-of-a-kind concert. Each choir will perform selections individually and then come together in a mass choir directed by guest conductor Dr. Jon Hurty from Augustana College.

The mass choir will sing numbers including Bethlehem of Noblest Cities (Howard Helvey), This Is My Shepherd (David N. Chids), and Now Glad of Heart (Keaton Lee Scott). The concert is open to the public at no charge and will be followed by a reception afterward.

Please join us for this afternoon song.

Ring in the Season

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 21 AT 3:00 P.M.

The North Shore Choral Society (NSCS) begins its 75th Anniversary season, Sunday, November 21 at 3:00 p.m., presenting "Ring in the Season" at GCC.

Dr. Julia Davids, Music Director, leads NSCS in holiday music including "There Shall a Star" from Mendelssohn's Christus, Biebl's Ave Maria, and the American premier of Canadian Jeff Enns' Creator of the "Stars of Night". The chorus will be joined by The Joyful Ringers handbell choir of GCC. Visit www.northshorechoral.org or call (773)741-6727 for details. Call (773)956-8400 for tickets.

Parents of 4th-6th Graders

As you may know, the Pageant will be upon us soon! Your sons and daughters have the opportunity to be the Children of All Nations who dress in country-specific costumes and bring gifts to the Baby Jesus.

During their November 7th and/or November 14th Sunday school classes, they will be able to pick out a costume - we have all kinds for all kinds of kids! We hope you will talk to your children about this opportunity and encourage them to participate, as in the past some kids have been hesitant to sign up because they haven't discussed it with their parents. We are happy to answer any questions that you may have! Please call C.J. Sultz (847)657-7079 and /or Christine Foley (847)486-4153, your Children of All Nations coordinators.

QUESTIONS & MORE QUESTIONS:
World Religion

Have you started wondering about how different religions sit along side Christianity? Questioning faith is normal and part of our spiritual journey. Join our 4 week small group on this topic. It will meet on December 12, & 19, January 2, & 9 from 9:15 a.m. - 10:30 a.m. Sign up by December 5.

Prayer of the Children

On Sunday, October 24, 2010 our worship service was blessed by the participation of a liturgical dance group from Dance and Music Academy Allegro Performance Company, directed by Krissie Odegard Geye.

The group of dancers accompanied the Pilgrim Chorus as they sang Prayer of the Children by Kurt Bestor. Their dance was an expression of prayer through body movement and contributed a great deal to the message of the anthem. The Music Board and music staff wish to thank this group for their very meaningful participation in that worship service.

Hands at Work

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5, TH AT 7:00 P.M.

Come, listen to The Spark and hear George Snyman speak about his life's work caring and advocating for the most vulnerable, destitute and orphaned victims of AIDS in Africa.

George Snyman is the founder of Hands at Work in Africa, a movement born in South Africa now spread across eight African nations with the vision of people worldwide, taking responsibility to care for the orphaned, vulnerable and dying in Africa.

African communities are mobilized to unite and reach out, focused on providing access to food, education, and basic health care to the most vulnerable children in their community. But they can't do it alone, they need our help.

For more information about Hands at Work, their projects and getting involved go to their website at www.us.handsatwork.org.

TOGETHER CARING FOR THE VULNERABLE

Stewardship Campaign

The My Faith, My Church, My Commitment pledge campaign has received 212 pledges as of October 20. These pledges total $493,741 which is 97.4% from the same pledges made in 2010.

We extend our sincere thank you to the following people who have responded to the 2011 Stewardship Campaign with their generous financial support fro our beloved church and its good work. We thank you for your love and commitment to Glenview Community Church.

- The 2010-2011 Stewardship Board.

Pledged commitments constitute 78% of the Glenview Community Church's operating budget. The Finance Board is in the process of preparing a preliminary budget and needs your response at your earliest convenience. As a congregation we all share the common belief that the work and ministry of this church must go on, and with that common belief, we must all affirm our support for our church and participate in this single, most important fundraising campaign. Sharing your financial gift with GCC is a commitment we thank you for...let all of us unite for growth and renewal.

We welcome those who have not yet committed to this campaign and look forward to hearing from you. An E-Blast with an on-line pledge form was distributed on Wednesday. Pledge forms can be found on the GCC web site at www.gccucc.org where you can choose from an on-line web form which goes directly to Dale Wittenberg or download a hard copy of the pledge form which you can mail to the church to the attention of Dale Wittenberg. Forms are in the church pews, in the church office and in the revolving kiosks in the Narthex and Transept. Place your pledge from in the attached envelope, seal it and either drop your envelope in the collection plate or bring it to the office and place it in Dale Wittenberg's mail slot.

Please respond ASAP. Thank you.
