RAINBOW SUNDAY

Several years ago in Green Bay I made the mistake of mentioning in a sermon that my favorite Easter candy is Peeps. That one throw away remark began an ongoing cascade of those too-sweet treats of marshmallow and sugar. And I discovered that Peeps aren't just for Easter anymore. Besides the traditional multi-colored chicks and bunnies, there are snowmen, turkeys, Santas, jack o lanterns – you name it. And, with that cascade came the realization that my adult taste preferences no longer include Peeps. Nevertheless, I am the proud owner of a Peeps T-shirt, of a Peeps towel, of Peeps toys, of a pair of Peeps sunglasses (for my peepers!), and of several pieces of Peeps art. I'm even a member of the Peeps Fan Club.

And the Peeps parade has followed me to Glenview. This Easter the pulpit was well stocked with five boxes of Peeps. I seriously considered revealing my secret Easter blessing to the congregation in the sermon, but the explanation just seemed too complicated!

Fittingly this Easter season, a Peeps post made its way around Facebook. This post is a picture of three pairs of Peeps: a pink bunny and a yellow chick...two yellow chicks...and two pink bunnies. The text for the picture reads: Love is Love: Equal Rights for all Peeps.

What a great way for Peeps to express the commitment of the Glenview Community Church to an inclusive faith that treasures each child of God as equally precious. Four years ago this congregation voted to make that inclusivity intentional and official by becoming an Open and Affirming Congregation of the United Church of Christ. Like the contrasting and complimentary colors of Peeps, our Open and Affirming commitment understands the unique differences of our common humanity as God's beautiful diversity rather than as sinful deviance. For this reason, the rainbow has become a ubiquitous symbol for openness and affirmation of the human spectrum in our contemporary culture.

On Sunday, May 18th the Glenview Community Church's Faith in Action Team will lead our congregation in a celebration of our Open and Affirming Commitment as we live into the words of our statement through how we live and witness to our faith in this church and beyond, dignifying and healing those who have too often been diminished and wounded in the name of religion.

One other Facebook post caught my eye in this Easter season. It's from an organization named Rainbow Over Wisconsin. Against a rainbow backdrop it offers these powerful words:

"Gay Pride was not born of a need to celebrate being gay, but our need to exist without persecution."

So instead of wondering why there isn't a Straight Pride movement, be thankful you don't need one."

The month of May is filled with very special Sundays:

MAY 4TH

Confirmation Sunday and the joy of celebrating with 25 of our Eighth Graders as they confirm their baptismal vows and become official members of GCC.

MAY 11TH

PYF Sunday and the joy of celebrating the faith of the Senior High School members of our Pilgrim Youth Fellowship.

HELP WANTED: PEOPLE WITH A PASSION FOR DIVERSITY NEEDED!

In order to realize the vision expressed by GCC's Open and Affirming (ONA) statement adopted in 2010, the Spiritual Council has created a Diversity Committee. Volunteers with a passion for making all God's children feel His love at GCC are encouraged to become the shapers of the policies and practices that will lead our church to continue its growth as an Open and Affirming congregation. Members will develop a charter for the Committee to address diversity of all types in our church. The Committee will be responsible for identifying and implementing best practices for creating an extravagant welcome to all and for promoting a positive image of GCC's Open and Affirming environment in the larger community. Resources will include, but are not limited to, contacts within the UCC and the hopes and prayers of church members. If you are interested in serving on this new Committee, please contact Kristine Voelker at kristinev818@gmail.com or any member of the Faith in Action Team before May 15.

LIFE EVERLASTING

We trust the promise of the resurrection for Ralph Norberg, who died on April 9, 2014 even as we hold his daughter Janice Duncan and family in our prayers; also for Lillian "Goldie" Decker, who died on April 9, 2014, even as we hold her son Fred Stewart and family in our prayers. May God's peace be with all.

OPEN CONVERSATION

WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP CIRCLE of the First Congregational Church of La Grange is holding an open conversation about Youth and the Sextrade on Saturday, May 17 from 9:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m. in their Founders Room.

Do you know that over 10,000 young people are homeless in Chicago over the course of a year? The youth come from all types of families and social economic groups, even suburban areas with loving parents. Homeless youth face several obstacles toward stable and safe lives. Access to education and healthcare, addiction and mental illness are all factors in both creating and perpetuating homelessness and poverty. Homeless youth can also fall victim to sex trafficking and "survival" sex. This conversation will focus on the systemic nature of poverty and the complex factors that lead to sexual exploitation and trafficking of youth. We will also discuss current interventions and actions being taken from direct work with individuals to policy work at local, state and national levels. This conversation will be brought to us by Aidan McCormack, Community and Congregational Relations Coordinator, The Night Ministry. Please join us. Admission is free. First Congregational Church of Lagrange, Cossett & 6th Ave, LaGrange, Il 60525. Contact Betsy Martin, GCC Faith in Action Team, if you are interested in attending, please call 847-657-7595 or email betsywisemartin@att.net.

SOCIAL JUSTICE FILM SCREENINGS

Are you interested in learning more about social justice issues? There are some upcoming screenings of films that address current social justice issues. Many of the films will also be accompanied by a discussion/lecture series.

The Next Movement, which focuses on the injustice of the prison industrial complex, is sponsoring an "Injustice for All Film Festival" through May 3 at various city locations. The films will highlight many current social justice issues, including human trafficking, which is on the rise in the U.S. See the link to a website that gives the dates, times and locations of screenings as well as synopses of the films. You need to make reservations on the web site for seats at the screenings, but the films are free. For complete information about each film in the series, go the following website: www.injusticeforallff.com

FAIR HOUSING DISCUSSION

Glenview's Fair Housing Ordinance will be the subject of a discussion sponsored by the Faith in Action Team and Adult Ed Board on May 7, at 7:30 p.m in the Founders Room. Brendan Saunders, 2014 recipient of the National Low Income Housing Coalition Organizer of the Year Award, will give a brief background on fair housing, the Cook County Ordinance prohibiting discrimination based on "source of income," and the Glenview Fair Housing Ordinance.

In August, 2013, the Glenview Village Board passed the Glenview Fair Housing Ordinance, intended to permit landlords to refuse to rent to people whose rent is, in part, paid by Section 8 Housing Vouchers. In practice, this allows landlords in Glenview to refuse to rent to people with low incomes.

Following Brendan's presentation, there will be time to discuss the details of the ordinance and the implications of Christian values on fair housing. Brendan is the Director of Advocacy and Organizing at Open Communities in Winnetka.

Open Communities is a leading voice for housing, economic and social justice in north suburban Chicago, working to promote inclusive communities that are welcoming to all.

The organization works with current and prospective residents and local groups to promote economically and culturally diverse communities in north suburban Chicago. They provide fair and affordable housing counseling services, community education, advocacy, and organizing for welcoming communities.

ADULT EDUCATION

Adult Education Board concludes its schedule for this church year with the following Sunday morning presentations at 9:00 a.m. in the Founders' Room. Please join us!

MAY 4

Erika Grad shares her life changing experience of travel, mission and ministry during her gap year before heading to college.

MAY 18

Donald Clark, Jr., GCC member and general counsel of the UCC, will share the "just released" news story of the UCC lawsuit that challenges North Carolina Gay-Marriage Ban.

MAY YOU COME TO SIXTY PLUS? OF COURSE!

Mark your calendars now for the final event of the season. We will host the luncheon from 12-1:30 p.m. on Tuesday, May 20, 2014. We will have a presentation by special guests to get you ready for summer.

GCC YOGA

Yoga class will be on summer break after Memorial Day. The last Monday night class is May 19. The last Thursday morning class is May 22. Have a great summer and see you in the fall.

I WANT YOUR BLOOD...

No, we have not been overtaken by vampires, but GCC has been approached by LifeSource to participate in the community blood drive. Our church will have a two-week period in May to visit the Glenview Donor Center (located at Waukegan and Willow, in the same plaza as Jewel-Osco). Look for more information to come, the opportunity to understand the need, and the importance of your gift. You'll be able to sign up for specific appointments here at the church. If only one more percent of all Americans would give blood, blood shortages would disappear for the foreseeable future...

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY

FISH IN MAY

Join us for after school faith and fun, "FISH", on May 1, and May 8 and May 15. We will meet after school and enjoy a snack, a short Bible lesson, complete one part of a three week service project, and have time for gym games or other games. This is for K-5th grade. We will split up into age appropriate groups. We are asking that you sign up in advance by sending an email to elizabeth.ciccolini@gccucc.org. There will be a snack sign up. Please list the names and ages of the children and the dates your children can attend in the email. All three days would work out best but we understand schedules.

During the past eight years, Gary Wendt has served as organist, Children's Choir director, and now Minister of Music and Organist at Glenview Community Church. He has taught music at Lyons School in Glenview for the past ten years. A graduate of University of Wisconsin – Eau Claire with a degree in Music Education, Gary has done post graduate work at DePaul University. He is an active member of the North Shore chapter of the American Guild of Organists. The Glenview Community Church's Buzard Opus 21 pipe organ was completed in 1999 over a seven week period. It was built with 3865 pipes, 49 straight-speaking stops, and 69 ranks across three manuals and pedal. The organ was the largest installation on the North Shore of Chicago in decades and today is recognized as one of the finest musical instruments in the area. A thirteenth stop, Harp/Celeste, was added last fall and now it can reproduce the sounds of thirteen different instruments.

CHICAGO SWEDISH MALE CHORUS

SATURDAY, MAY 10 AT 3:00 PM

Simple Gifts

The 16 member Chicago Swedish Male Chorus will present a concert of songs in English and Swedish. Directed by Jeff Delay, the Chicago Swedish Male Chorus is one of the few Swedish Male Choruses in the Chicago area.

The Chicago Swedish Male Chorus is a part of the American Union of Swedish Singers. The American Union of Swedish Singers (AUSS) was organized over 120 years ago at the height of the immigration years. Swedes formed choruses here in America to sing the songs that they remembered and loved from their homeland. These individual choruses came together in 1892 to form the AUSS. Their first public appearance was at the World's Columbian Exposition in Chicago in 1893. Over the years the Union has performed for kings and presidents, and sung in the major opera houses of New York, Chicago and San Francisco, as well as Carnegie Hall, New York, Orchestra Hall and Auditorium, Chicago, and the Mormon Tabernacle in Salt Lake City. Today, there are about 500 members in 24 choruses from coast to coast.

Members participate in singing tours of Sweden. The most recent trip was in 2005, when members traveled from Gothenburg to Stockholm, with detours to Dalarna (the most traditional of the provinces), beautiful Värmland, Hälsingland, and a flight to Piteå to renew acquaintances with local choruses.
